O conde de Silves era apaixonado pelo mar e pelas vinhas do Algarve. Em finais do século XIX plantou as suas primeiras cepas no Morgado do Quintão. Hoje, quase 200 anos depois, celebramos esse legado e a herança de um Algarve genuíno neste branco tipicamente algarvio, feito a partir da casta branca mais típica de todas na região: o Crato Branco. Tem uma cor amarela pálida e no aroma predomina a fruta branca fresca. É cremoso e mineral e o vinho ideal para acompanhar peixes e mariscos entre amigos e família. Enologia: Joana Maçanita.

The count of Silves fell in love with the sea and the vineyards of the Algarve. At the end of the 19th-century he planted his first vines at Morgado do Quintão. Today, almost 200 years later, we celebrate his legacy and the "real Algarve" in this algarvian white, made from the most notable local grape variety: Crato Branco. It's fresh in the nose and its creaminess and mineral profile makes it perfect for pairing with fish and seafood dishes and enjoyed amongst friends and family. Winemaker: Joana Maçanita.
